Tools > Reports > Transactions > Best Sales

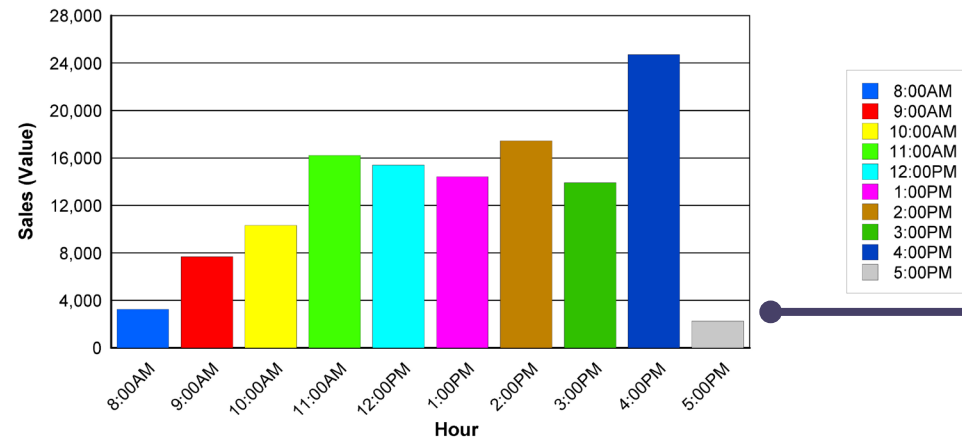

The Best Sales report displays the business' sales per hour in bar graph format. Below the bar graph, you can view a detailed breakdown for each hour of the day. This includes information such as the number of transactions, amount of revenue, average sale value, and the percentage of sales. This report allows you to easily compare sales from hour to hour, which is useful for tracking daily trends and sales patterns. This information could be used to plan specials or promotions for certain times of day. If you want to see a daily view of the report, you can change 'hourly' to 'daily' in your miscellaneous report options.
